
CORDELIA DOLAN JOINS INVESTINDUSTRIAL TO LEAD INVESTEE COMPANY TALENT MANAGEMENT

21st April 2022 – Investindustrial has appointed Cordelia Dolan as a Principal with responsibility for Talent Management at the investee company level.

Based out of Investindustrial's London office, Cordelia brings a decade of experience in talent management and acquisition, most recently serving as Talent Director for Inflexion Private Equity. Prior to that, Cordelia spent six years with Skillcapital, a global executive search and advisory firm dedicated to private equity. In this role she built strong relationships with a broad group of CEOs, CFOs and board members from both public and private companies across Europe and the US.

Cordelia started out in her career as an analyst at Mactavish, a research firm focused on the Insurance industry, and spent time with The Press Association in their communications team. She holds a BA in Philosophy from Trinity College, Dublin.

Andrea C. Bonomi, Chairman of the Industrial Advisory Board at Investindustrial, said: “We are pleased to have Cordelia joining Investindustrial and to bring in house her expertise in recruiting and developing senior level investee company talent. Investindustrial has an operational improvement team of twenty professionals on three continents that supports its investee companies across a number of strategic aspects, such as post-merger integration, supply chain management, sustainability, digitisation and talent management. With Cordelia joining the team, we are even better placed to offer our mid-market investee companies an unrivalled support to help improve their operations.”

About Investindustrial
